VETERANS' DAY THIS YEAR:
"Please ask all the children to ask their Parents to put up a green porch light in remembrance of all of our veterans."
This is the green

FALLING

BY CHARLOTTE MAY CALL

Leaves, falling from a tree,
Falling past a bumble bee
Falling past a nut
Chased by a mutt
Picked up by a current of air
Flying by a lady fair
Soaring through the Autumn breeze
Just about to freeze
When a majestic tree
Caught me,
Hugged me tight
all through the night.
All through the Autumn,
Winter, to Spring
When the wind did bring,
Falling now,
Going close to the Snow,
Down I finally touched,
The Snow clutched,
Soon covered all the way
Waiting all the day,
Until all the Snow did melt
Thinking I would welt,
Covered in Earth
Did I give birth,
To a wonderful Sprout
The best Sprout, no doubt.
Soon will my Sprout be a tree,
A majestic tree, like the one that caught me.

some really good questions. Thank you for asking those questions. Make sure you keep asking me those. Here are some.

Q. I have been bullied a little. How do I make them stop?

A. That must be tough, but what I think you should do is try to stand up to them. If you get upset then that just gives the bully power. So never try to just forget about it or get really mad and freak out. That will just cause more trouble, because you will get in trouble and the bully will too of course, but you will also. So what you do is you, like I said before try to stand up for yourself. Just make sure you are not mean when you do it. Just ask them to stop. If that does not stop them then walk away and tell a teacher or your parents. That way the bully will get in trouble but you won't. So if you ever get bullied, then remember this.

Q. I fall behind in my class and I can't catch up. What do I do?

A. What you should do is ask your teacher or your mom or dad if they could help you. If you do then you need to listen to them the whole time and never get

Is the Fun Gone?

by Laurissa Blakey

Schools in,
Halloween is over,
Too cold for Culver's.
It's not my birthday,
No more Earth Day.
Haven't been to many parties,
Already ate my stash of smarties.
Christmas, not even close!
Can't play in the hose.
Snow's not here either!
Winter is a friend of fever.
What fun is there, besides the normal friends?
Besides, everyone is in their warm blanket dens.
Weather? Don't get me started on the wind and rain!
So cold I have to complain!
Shall I go on,
with this depressing song?

So much fun!

Leaves to jump in Eating yummy
Thanksgiving Din-Din
Hot Chocolate so warm

Happyness all around Having love and compassion abound.

sidetracked. If you don't understand then just ask him/her what they are talking about. It is not like you are in front of everyone in the school. Do not be embarrassed to talk to anyone. Or if you need extra help or they are not able to help you, then you can go to school early in the morning to the homework lab for more help. It is in the tutoring lab at 8:00. A picture of me is on the door. The teachers there will help you.

Those were all of the questions for today. They were great. And remember I am going to be doing this all year long. So keep asking those questions. Also, if I didn't do yours this week then I will do it next week. Thank you very much for reading with me today. See you next week! By!

*as his knowledge goes, his father was a great knight. Will was orphaned because his father died a hero, and his mother died giving birth to him. When choosing day arrives he pushes himself to be better at battle school. But his previous dreams end when he starts to learn the trade of mystery. Halt, his teacher, is excellent, funny, and tough. He teaches Will the meaning and works of what it means being a protector of the Redmont Fief. You have to help your fief, be brave, and strong. Everything seems to be going well for Will, until the Kalkara arrive! The Kalkara were sent by Morgarath to kill his enemies. Will Halt and Will figure out what to do and stop these monstrous creatures? This is going to be an exciting adventure for the both of them, and you, if you read
